Please note that the church office will be closed tomorrow for Easter Monday.

The beautiful crosses on the tables at breakfast this morning were made by Barry & Leah Gable.

The flowers on the altar today have been placed to the Glory of God and in honor of Anna Swing’s birthday on April 10th and Myles Hampton’s birthday on April 23rd by Robert & Christi Swing

The centerpiece at the front of the church today is placed to signify the lamb as a widely recognized symbol for Jesus Christ, often referred to as the Lamb of God. This symbolism is rooted in the concept of Jesus as the perfect sacrifice who takes away the sins of the world, mirroring the Passover lamb tradition in the Old Testament.

History of our Stained Glass Windows

We are reaching out to everyone for information related to the church’s stained glass windows and the families who donated them for a history piece about them. We would like names, family history, their relation to the church, what they did for a living, and any personal information. If you have information to share, please contact the church office at 336-357-2369 or churchsecretary@beckschurch.com or Anna Swing at 336-239-2599 or marketing@beckschurch.com.

He is Risen!

He is not here; He has risen!

Luke 24:6

1. Those Who _____ for the Body of Christ

Later, Joseph of Arimathea asked Pilate for the body of Jesus. Now Joseph was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly because he feared the Jewish leaders. With Pilate's permission, he came and took the body away. He was accompanied by Nicodemus, the man who earlier had visited Jesus at night. Nicodemus brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about seventy-five pounds. Taking Jesus' body, the two of them wrapped it, with the spices, in strips of linen. This was in accordance with Jewish burial customs. At the place where Jesus was crucified, there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb, in which no one had ever been laid. Because it was the Jewish day of Preparation and since the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.

John 19:38-42

A rich man from Arimathea named Joseph, who had himself become a disciple of Jesus.

Matthew 27:57

The house was filled with the fragrance of perfume.

John 12:3

This perfume was worth an entire year's wages. Why wasn't it sold and the money given to the poor?

John 12:5

They doused linen strips in seventy-five pounds of burial spices.

John 19:39

2. The Woman Who _____ the Voice of Christ

Early on Sunday morning, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and found that the stone had been rolled away from the entrance.

John 20:1

He then began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the teachers of the law, and that He must be killed and after three days rise again.

Mark 8:31

O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?

1 Corinthians 15:15

They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him.

John 20:2

She saw two angels in white, seated where Jesus' body had been, one at the head and the other at the foot.

John 20:12

Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned and said to Him, Rabboni!"

John 20:16

3. The Follower Who _____ in the Miracle of Christ

John and Peter raced to the tomb. John was faster, but Peter was bolder. He entered the tomb and came out bewildered. John entered the tomb and came out believing. Then the other disciple, who came to the tomb first, went in also; and he saw and believed.

John 20:8

He saw the handkerchief that had been around Jesus' head, not lying with the linen clothes but folded together in a place by itself.

John 20:7

He has set free all who have lived their lives as slaves to the fear of dying.

Hebrews 2:15

For the Lord Himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air and so, we will be with the Lord forever. 1 Thessalonians 4:16-18
